16th-20th August

An Annual Celebration of the Arts in County Tipperary

www.terryglassartsfestival.ie

Welcome to the 19th Annual Terryglass Arts Festival

Another year has flown by and we are delighted to be back again to celebrate the 19th year of the Terryglass Arts Festival. The 2017 Festival presents an exciting programme packed with fantastic offerings from the world of film, music, literature, theatre, visual arts, street arts, cruises with a difference, historic walks and an extensive workshop programme with many new activities to tempt all ages! With almost 100 events we hope you will find this year's festival to be bigger and better than ever.

From its small beginnings, the Festival has grown to become an important event in the Irish arts festivals' calendar and is a key festival in County Tipperary. It is run by a small, voluntary committee which works year-round to make each festival a fun and engaging event that appeals to all.

Highlights this year include, Katie Holly's poignantly funny play Marion in the Village Hall - a coming of age story sure to have you laughing out loud. On Friday night Kíla, Ireland's unique trad-fusion group, will rock the rafters in Terryglass church. The Festival's first visual artist in residence, Jenny Fox, will transport her studio to the old church - go and take a look...you won't be disappointed!

Saturday evening's events in the Village Green include street entertainment, live music and a super new fire-show. Sunday's Festival Village Carnival will feature live bands, local food stalls, craft demonstrations and the juggling supremo Grant Goldie.

Last year the Festival initiated a conversation between composer George Higgs and members of Inland Waterways Ireland (Lough Derg Branch) to develop a collaborative project. Following several creative meetings, they have applied for funding to design and build a Monstrous Amphibious Musical Machine between February and August 2018, to be launched at the 20th Festival. Boat owners or members of the public wishing to become involved or hear more should keep an eye on our Facebook page or email info@terryglassartsfestival.ie

Of course, none of this could happen without the exceptional and continued support we receive from our funders, sponsors, local businesses and the local community, as well as you, the audience! We would like to thank everybody who has contributed to this year's programme. In turn, we would ask you to support our sponsors, without whom this festival could not take place.

We look forward to seeing you in Terryglass, Co. Tipperary Arts for Life / Na hEalaíona Feadh Saol.

Emma Pearce and Aoife O'Rourke
Co-chairs, Terryglass Arts Festival

Visual Arts at Terryglass Arts Festival 2017

Jenny Fox, Artist in Residence The Places In Between

The Old Church 11.00am – 5.00pm Daily Adm: Free

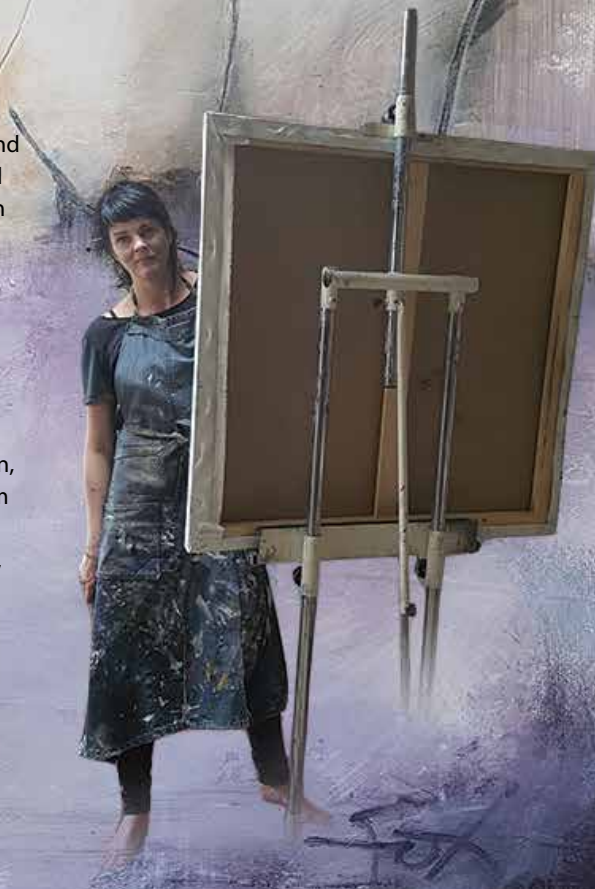

Terryglass Arts Festival is delighted to host Jenny Fox as its first Artist in Residence. Born in Canada and brought up in Mayo, Jenny lives and works in Cloughjordan. A graduate of NCAD, her work is represented in several public and private collections at home and abroad. Much of Jenny's inspiration for her work comes from rural landscapes. Her work centres on the feeling of belonging, the notions of physical space and place. "I am not trying to paint these places, they are never my subject, I am trying to express how I experience them."

About her residency, Jenny says:

My intention for this installation is to create two interlinked areas: an exhibition, containing finished paintings; and a re-creation of my studio - the engine room for my work - where my working practices will be exposed!

My studio contains all you might expect: paintings at various stages, my notes, sketch pads - the blueprints for all my work - photographs, writing on the wall, collected objects of interest, hand cream and other bits and bobs.

While working I always listen to either music or radio drama, so this soundtrack will also be present. As I will be in-situ, throughout the festival, audiences will be welcome to come in, look through my sketchpads etc. and ask me questions about my work.

Visual Arts at Terryglass Arts Festival 2017

Homeland

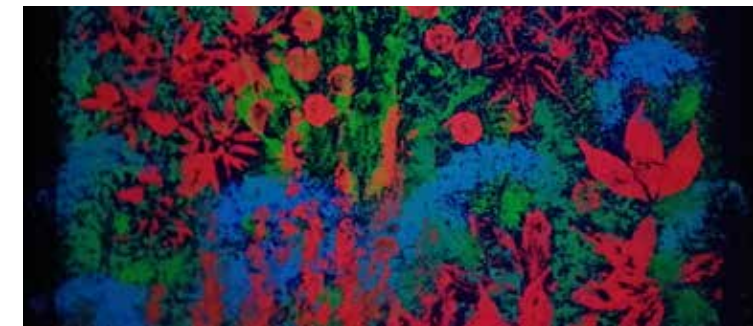

Terryglass National School

11.00am to 5.00pm Daily - Adm: Free

Damer House Gallery, in collaboration with Terryglass Arts Festival, presents Homeland- a selection of short films that document life and livelihoods in Ireland's towns and villages. The videos and films, all made between 2014 and 2016, are played on a loop and include professional, fiction and non-fiction, sound and silent material. The Homeland video selection is dedicated exclusively to video, art and film and will attract all those interested in the culture and history of Ireland.

Selected Artists are Aniz Duran, David Quin, Gevin Gaffney, Alan Phelan, Patrick Fitzpatrick, Joanna Hopkins, Sharon Murphy and Sharon Kelly.

Plant Life with Lynn Kirkham

White Box 1

11.00am to 5.00pm Fri & Sat
Drop In Workshop (5yrs - Adult)
Adm: Free

Tipperary-based Lynn Kirkham is a commissioned artist who works in bronze, scrap metal, steel, concrete and willow. Her artwork is always site specific and in response to location. Starting with a call out to gardeners and local gardening groups for plants and flowers to be donated for this project, Lynn will work with people of all ages to create stunning new artworks. Plants, flowers and fluorescent paint will be installed onto large-scale canvases to create beautiful nature images that can be lit with back lights at night throughout the village for a magical effect. The artworks will be made during the festival with participation from garden enthusiasts, residents and visitors to the village in making the art, from 5 years upwards.

With support from Creative Ireland

All are welcome. Do drop in and get involved!

Wednesday 16th August 2017

7.15pm Official Launch - Terryglass Hall - Admission Free - All Welcome

Join us for the Festival Launch with some great local music from Jamie Lee Forde and performance poetry with Richard Brennan.

We are delighted to have Jamie as part of the Festival's opening night celebrations. At just 19, Jamie, who hails from Cloughjordan, is already getting amazing exposure. Some of the acts he has supported include The Riptide Movement and Ryan Sheridan. Jamie is definitely "One To Watch"!

Richard Brennan is a performance poet who has been captivating Irish audiences for the last few years, performing at Electric Picnic and Body & Soul, as well as at Longford and Skibbereen Arts Festivals. Richard is MC for the Scene of the Rhyme in Tullamore, a monthly showcase of the best in spoken word, live music and comedy.

Richard's material is wry, meditative and observational, seeking to extract the extraordinary from the seemingly mundane.

Jenny Fox's exhibition, 'The Places In Between' and Damer House's 'Homeland' will also be launched at the opening.

Come along and enjoy and find out what we have on offer for the 19th Terryglass Arts Festival!

9.00pm Love and Friendship - Terryglass Hall - Adm: €5

In association with Cloughjordan Cine Club

A hilarious period drama based on Jane Austen's comic gem novella, Lady Susan.

Filmed entirely in Ireland, this is a delightful jaunt where manners and social standing are key, and a lady is only as good as her last husband. Love and Friendship is a rarity: an 18th century period drama with an over-arching sense of fun – not to be missed!

Ireland/Netherlands/France 2016 | Language: English | 93 minutes | Cert: G
Director: Whit Stillman Cast: Kate Beckinsale, Chloe Sevigny, Xavier Samuel

The festival committee thanks Cloughjordan Cine Club for its assistance with this screening.

Workshop Descriptions

Every year, the committee works hard to offer a quality, participative arts programme, and this year is no different. With a wide range of workshops available we know you will find one to enjoy, and you may even discover a new talent in the process! Go on...have a go at something you have never tried before.

Here are just some of the highlights. A full day-by-day schedule of over 60 workshops is provided on the following pages. You can also get more information on each workshop on our website, www.terryglassartsfestival.ie. Please remember that early booking is advised as places are limited and sell out fast.

Lego Workshops & Robotics

Little Makers - Magic Faraway Tree
Re-enact Enid Blyton's famous fairy tale using Lego!

Lough Derg Lego Legends

Journey down Lough Derg in the middle ages and envision life during the times of Brian Boru and the Vikings. Create islands, boats and a market village and find out if the Vikings succeed in their raid!

Robotics

Build and program robots to move around and react to their environment!

Elf and Pixie Jars

Anyone who has experience with real fairies, knows it's not a good idea to capture and stuff them into any ordinary jar! They will pinch and nip, if treated unkindly! So come to the enchanting Elf and Pixie Jar workshop and make a fairy friendly alternative, which will add a magical atmosphere to any special space...no elf or pixie will be hurt in the making!

Wooden Aeroplane

Create your own aircraft - select, design, assemble, sand, paint and decorate your own unique aeroplane to take home - in the process learning a little interesting theory too but in a safe, fun way with minimal use of hand tools and equipment.

Mastering Marquetry

From the strength and solidity of basic timber come the incredibly thin sheets of veneer that are needed for the craft of marquetry. The glorious variations of grain that are revealed may be used to create delicate, stylised pictures and beautifully balanced, symmetrical designs. This practical workshop will cover the basics of Marquetry and you will be able to take home your very own masterpiece!

Magical Mosaic (full day workshop)

Forget the outside world for a few hours and join Nathalie for a colour-filled day of mosaic. All participants will create their own unique piece to bring home using this absorbing, tactile and beautiful art form. No experience required, mosaic is fun and easy to learn! During this workshop you will design, assemble, grout and polish your mosaic creation. With a break between 12.30pm and 2.00pm, to let the glue and tiles dry, you'll get a chance to grab some lunch and recharge before heading back in to put the finishing touches to your stunning mosaic creation.

'A buzzing comedic script...a chuckle fest of embarrassing moments and killer one liners' Evening Echo

8.00pm Marion
Village Hall - Adm: €12

Audience advisory: Suitable for 16 years plus. Some strong language and adult-related humour.

Shoestring Theatre Company presents 'Marion', Written and performed by Katie Holly. Attending 12 pubs of Christmas... Starring in her own private (imaginary) music video set on board a Bus Eireann vehicle... Getting comfortable with cursing... Just some of the obstacles facing Marion. Along with the constant stream of other peoples' voices in her head. A character study of a girl in the throes of realising she's a grown up, all of a sudden. Katie Holly has written, directed and performed with many different theatre companies including Callback, Hammergrin and Playgroup. After a sell-out run at Cork Midsummer Festival 2016, Marion has been on tour to The Junction Festival Clonmel, Skibbereen Arts Festival, The Mill Theatre Dundrum, Friar's Gate Kilmallock amongst others.

"Blown away, a superb night's entertainment. DO NOT miss this one...." Audience member

8.00pm - 9.00pm Circus Skills

8.00pm - 9.30pm Music with One Horse Pony

9.30pm Fireflies Flaming Performance Fireshow

We start off the evening with circus entertainment, mime artists, stilt walkers and a juggling show. Come and say hello to Marcel So What! as he has fun in the village! Ever thought about joining a circus? Roll up, roll up and try out circus skills with expert tutors! Music will be supplied by One Horse Pony, pumping out stompin' Roots and Blues rhythms from Ireland's Deep South. Finally, prepare to be amazed and dazzled by the grand finale of the fantastic Fireflies Flaming Performance fire show! This conflagration of combustion is a scintillating scorcher of a show. Stand back as the girls fling flames with flare and spin sparks in this evening inferno!

There is no admission fee for Saturday evening's street entertainment; however donations of all sizes will be gratefully accepted. Festival stewards will be on hand to accept donations and the Festival Frog, located in the village, welcomes any contributions you would like to feed to him! All donations and contributions will go towards making next year's 20th anniversary festival a success.

Don't forget to wrap up for the event and bring a brolly
...just in case!
